Operations/Farm Report – by Ben Riffell

- Insurance is progressing slowly. They are waiting on report from adjuster, which they may receive on or around April 10th
- Sowing the dove fields for dove season that opens in September.
- Wildlife food plots will be plowed in the days to follow.
- Spring turkey lottery drawing will be held at tonight's meeting
- Rafaelito Fraden held a hunters education class last week. It was received very well, with 37 participants
- Cattle are doing well, Ben is expecting to take a few feeders to the market soon, since the market is up.

The plans are to build another, larger shop and hay storage with the money saved on insurance premiums from the buildings that were torn down and from any money received in settlement for the buildings damaged by winds in March.
